Pastor's Corner

Holy Trinity

I. At the Heart of the Mystery of the Trinity is Relationship! The Trinity reveals to us who God is. The Holy Spirit (Sanctifier) is the bond of communion between the Father (Creator) and the Son (Jesus, Redeemer). The Trinity is THE model relationship for us. The whole impact of Revelation is this: “relationship” is what God is about, and therefore it is no wonder that we, who are made in the image and likeness of God, are also essentially about relationship. Dating back to the seventh century, the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity is “the central mystery of Christian faith and life. It is the mystery of God in Himself. It is therefore the source of all the other mysteries of faith, the light that enlightened them” (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 234).

II. Similes and Metaphors: Through the centuries, saints and artist have helped us to understand the Holy Trinity through images and comparisons. Saint Patrick is said to have explained the Trinity to the people of Ireland by showing them a shamrock, with its three leaves on one stem. Saint Ignatius of Loyola compared the Trinity to a cord played on an instrument: three distinct notes forming one sound. The early iconographers of the Church in the East depicted the Trinity with the imagery from the Old Testament (Jewish Scriptures) story of Abraham’s angelic visitors. A familiar symbol of the Trinity is a triangle with rays radiating from it, and in the middle of the triangle an open eye, representing the all-seeing Providence of God.

III. The Absolute of Love: Today’s feast of the Trinity invites us to rediscover the many ways in which the love of God is revealed in our lives: in the life God breathed into our souls, in every wonderful work of creation formed by the hand of God, in the love of God dwelling among us in our love of family and friends. In realizing such wonder, may our disappointments in life and our obliviousness to God’s presence be transformed into an awareness of God’s love and a spirit of gratitude for the precious gift of life we have received, not through any doing on our part, but through the limitless love of God. Be grateful!

IV. Go Zags! Some of you are aware that I am a big basketball fan of Gonzaga University, in Spokane, Washington, where I have visited that campus and actually walked onto their basketball floor! That University is named after Saint Aloysius Gonzaga (1568-1591) who was born into a noble Italian family who destined him for the military. While recovering from an illness, Aloysius read about the lives of the saints and spent time in prayer. As a result, he decided to dedicate himself to God as a Jesuit priest. Most of his family was against it, but he joined anyway, making his vows in 1587. When the plague broke out in Rome in 1591, Aloysius volunteered to care for the victims and became sick himself. He recovered but his health was broken, and he died within a few months. Many schools are named for him because he is patron saint of Catholic youth. We celebrate this inspiring Saint on Friday, June 21. Saint Aloysius Gonzaga, pray for us, & for the Zags this coming basketball season!

V. Theology of the Hammer: Habitat for Humanity is an international Christian organization which builds houses for qualified low income families. Homeowner partners agree to: sweat equity hours, maintenance of house/property, and timely mortgage payments. The use of a nail and a hammer can become an instrument to manifest God’s love! To date parishioners of the Cathedral have raised $1,650 of the $3,000 we have committed to H4H. We’re over halfway there! There is an envelope in your tithe package or you may choose to give online through WeShare. If you are interested in working on the habitat house, contact the parish office.

VI. Lawyer and Saint! How can that be? It was true for a smart, faith-filled family man by the name of Thomas More. Born in London, he had a deep affection for his wife and three daughters. The well-educated and well-respected Thomas More held many powerful positions in the Church and in society: in particular, a Parliament lawyer, Speaker of the House of Commons, and Chancellor of England. During a time of great upheaval and reformation, though he was a friend and consultant to King Henry VIII, Thomas More would not violate his conscience and refused to swear to the Oath of Supremacy, which meant accepting Henry VIII as head of the Church of England. His final words: “The king’s good servant, but God’s first.” Sent to the Tower of London on April 17, 1534, this lawyer was found guilty of treason. Thomas Moore was beheaded on July 6, 1535, beatified in 1886 and canonized a saint by the Catholic Church in 1935. We remember him on Saturday, June 22. Saint Thomas More, attorney and saint, pray for us.

VII. The Old Violin and Anniversary Six! I cannot believe it's been six years since my arrival on June 18, 2013. That first nervous Sunday at Saint Stephen Cathedral, I retold one of my favorite stories, “The Old Violin.” An old, tattered violin was being auctioned off for a few bucks until a master musician stepped up, brushed off the dust, and began to make sweet music! After hearing the melodious sound, the bidding began again, and the violin was sold for several thousand dollars! The point? The need for me, and you, to allow the Master to get hold of us. When that happens, our value escalates beyond belief! When our value escalates, we feel better about ourselves and are more eager to get involved, to share the melody of our lives—faith, gifts and talents—with others. As we move forward together as a community, may we allow the Master to get hold of us, to touch us with grace. Thank you for the many ways you have supported, cared for, and loved me these six years. I am very happy to be your shepherd!

"We must not only give what we HAVE;
we must give what we ARE."

Desire Joseph Mercier

THIS IS THE HOLY TRINITY

Today we celebrate the Holy Trinity, one of the most confounding mysteries of our faith. Through this mystery we experience our relationship to God: Creator, Savior, and Holy Spirit. This relationship is not easy to understand or to describe. It does not become clearer through analysis. Its complexity mirrors the complexity of all our relationships. We understand our relationships with our spouses, our children, our parents, and our friends only through daily give-and-take, annual rituals, and the life-changing moments we share. We understand our relationships only as we live them. The relationships we have with those we love, and who love us, sustain us through an uncertain and difficult life. This is the Holy Trinity.

What is striking about today's readings is that each is incomplete. What they do offer is a description of a moment in our relationship, a memory of a time and an event when our relationship made sense even though that sense may be beyond our ability to describe fully. Often that is all that our faith offers, that is, a memory of what is possible, what is promised, what has been given. A memory of eternity, of love beyond understanding is to be cherished and nurtured even if not fully understood. This is the Holy Trinity.

DISCIPLESHIP

When we cultivate a relationship with God, we are motivated—by the love that God pours into our hearts through the Holy Spirit—to serve God and give of ourselves. This practice of giving and receiving helps us become the disciples we are called to be. Does this mean we will become perfect? Of course not—we are human, after all!

We can live as disciples, and encourage others to do the same, by sharing God's love through our example of loving, giving, and serving. Do you believe that you have skills and talents to share? Or do you believe that you aren't as outgoing, or gifted, or wealthy, or smart (fill in the blank!) as others? Or perhaps that your gifts aren't needed? God gives us all gifts and we are called to receive those gifts gratefully, cultivate them, share them lovingly in justice with others, and return them with increase to the Lord. Pray for the openness to allow the Holy Spirit to guide you, and to be open to sharing your gifts.

HARD ROWING

Learning is like rowing upstream; not to advance is to drop back.
—Chinese proverb

Forming Good Disciples

"Everything the Father has is mine..." John 16:12-15

The spirit of competition in our culture is strong. Some people find it difficult to acknowledge that they are not solely responsible for their achievements. We can be very presumptuous. The words and phrases we use, our tone and dialect, come from the people who raise us, or from teachers who help us learn another way. People who are successful in business or sports owe much to the parents, teachers, coaches, teammates, supervisors and co-workers who helped them on their journey to success. The intimate, albeit mysterious, union of the Three Persons of the Holy Trinity, and our union with Jesus, is reflected in the words of Jesus, "Everything the Father has is mine; for this reason I told you he will take from what is mine and declare it to you."

Do we demonstrate in the way we live that everything we have comes from God, belongs to God and is intended to be used for ourselves and for others? Does our life reflect our gratitude to our Triune God and to all who helped us to be who we are?

Only you can divide your property as you want it divided. A bequest to your Church can be a living memorial to the nobility of your life. It is also exempt from estate and inheritance taxes and reduces the amount of the estate to be taxed. Have an attorney provide the advice you might need to prepare such a request. Our legal title is St. Stephen Cathedral Parish of Owensboro, Kentucky Inc.
