II. Funeral Planning Session: everyone is welcome to attend a presentation to assist you with funeral arrangements and liturgy planning on Monday, November 18 at 6:00pm in our Community Center. James Wells and myself will present basics for planning the funeral liturgy, along with music and Scripture selections. Finally, parishioner James Warren will give information on services offered by Hospice of Western Kentucky. There will be a representative from Haley-McGinnis Funeral Home to discuss funeral planning and the burial process. If you have questions, there will be time for those to be addressed. Light refreshments will be available. Open to the public!

I. Be Part of A Life-Giving Parish Community! If you are a registered parishioner, you should have recently received a letter from me talking about three components that make up a life-giving community:

PRAYER—Private and communal (especially the communal prayer of Eucharist and the Sacraments);

HOSPITALITY—Members feel they belong and are appreciated. The attitude would be: “this is my parish; it’s success or failure depends on my being open and hospitable.”

SERVICE: The true disciple needs and wants to serve, following the example of Jesus. Selfless service in riches one’s life.

Thanks to the 101 families who have returned their stewardship commitment. Prayerfully review the possibilities in the booklet you received in the mail. Please return this Time/Talent/and Treasure pledge as a grateful offering to God by Thanksgiving Day, November 28. Thanksgiving is about recognizing my blessings and sharing them gratefully! If you did not receive a packet, extras are available at the doors of church or the Parish Office.

III. Must the CREMATED REMAINS be BURIED or ENTOMBED? Yes. Respectful final disposition of cremated remains involves interment or entombment. Burial options include a family grave in a cemetery or an urn garden, a special section in a cemetery with small, pre-dug graves for urns. A common practice is the entombment of the cremated remains in a "columbarium," which is an arrangement of niches, either in a mausoleum, a room or wall into which an urn or other worthy vessel is placed for permanent memorial. The practice of keeping cremated remains in the home of a relative/friend of the deceased is not considered the reverent disposition that the Church requires (Order of Christian Funerals, appendix II #417). Burial at sea of cremated remains differs from scattering. An appropriate and worthy container, heavy enough to be sent to its final resting place, may be dropped into the sea (See Order of Christian Funerals, #406.4). Local government should be consulted for environmental regulations.

IV. May I SCATTER the Cremated Remains? No. The practice of scattering cremated remains on the sea, from the air, or on the ground, or keeping cremated remains in the home of a relative/friend of the deceased are not considered the "reverent disposition" that the Church requires (Order of Christian Funerals, appendix II #417). Burial at sea of cremated remains differs from scattering. An appropriate and worthy container, heavy enough to be sent to its final resting place, may be dropped into the sea (See Order of Christian Funerals, #406.4). Local government should be consulted for environmental regulations.

V. Why Does the Church Consider the BODY so Important? "This is the body once washed in Baptism, anointed with the oil of salvation, and fed with the Bread of Life and Cup of Salvation. This is the body whose hands clothed the poor, fed the hungry, and embraced the sorrowing. Thus, the Church's reverence and care for the body grows out of the reverence and concern for the person whom the Church now commends to the care of God. However, when circumstances prevent the presence of the body at the funeral liturgy it is appropriate that the cremated remains of the body be present for the full course of the funeral rites, including the Vigil for the Deceased, the Funeral Liturgy, and the Rite of Committal. The funeral liturgy should always be celebrated in a church." (Reflections on the Body, Cremation, and Catholic Funeral Rites, Bishops' Committee on the Liturgy)

Prayer for Vocations

to Priesthood and Consecrated Life

God our Father, we thank you for calling men and women from the Diocese of Owensboro to serve in your Son's kingdom as priests, deacons, and religious. We pray that you continue to inspire young men and women to respond courageously to your call and give themselves generously to the Church in service of the Gospel.

Pour out your Holy Spirit upon our parishes, schools, and families and assist us in building a culture of vocations in which many will hear your call to serve you people. Help us to remain faithful to the call of the Gospel as we support and encourage vocations of sacrificial love in our youth.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

RESEMBLANCE

The dignity of resembling the Almighty is common to all people; we should then love them all as ourselves, as living images of the Deity. It is in this that we belong to God.

—St. Francis de Sales

Forming Good Stewards

Good stewards are formed by other good stewards!

“All that you see here - the days will come when there will not be left one stone up another.”
Luke 21:15-19

Jesus grew up in the small village of Nazareth on top of a craggy mountain in the northern part of Israel. Like the vast majority of the people of his day he lived in a small house with a lower space where animals were brought in at night and a raised portion at the rear where the family lived, stored their meager possessions and slept on mats. There was no middle class. It is recorded that Jesus traveled several times to the grand and elaborately furnished Temple in the walled city of Jerusalem. He saw the excesses of wealth and power and he realized they were not what God desired to honor him. He taught us that people who love God, and who love and are responsible for themselves and others, are the true Temples that give honor to their God who created them. The Temple and the City of Jerusalem would be destroyed by Titus and natural disasters. But the disciples of Jesus who try to imitate him are Temples of the Holy Spirit that no natural disaster or powerful army can destroy. Are we such a temple?

DISCIPLESHIP: Grateful and Giving

A Message from Father Jerry: Many thanks to everyone who has already returned a Time, Talent, and Treasure pledge. If you have not yet done so, please:

- Review the ministry directory, then pray about how you can offer your time and talents in ministry. If everyone is involved, even just a little, the results greatly will benefit our parish (and will bring you joy!).
- Consider your blessings and pray about your appropriate level of financial support to our parish. Everyone can do something!

Whether you are a longtime member, new to our parish, or just new to pledging, please return a pledge by Thanksgiving (November 28). Drop your pledge in the offertory at Mass, mail it back, or submit a pledge online at www.stephencathedral.org. Extra packets are available at the doors of church or in the Parish Office.

With grateful hearts we give back to the Lord a generous portion of the blessings we receive. Know that I am grateful each day for everyone in our Saint Stephen Cathedral parish community.

Ministry Opportunities: How is God calling you?

- Cantors and choir members help lead our parish community in sung prayer at weekend Masses and on holy days and special celebrations. More choir members and cantors are always needed and welcome! If you are interested in being a part of our Music Ministry, please contact James Wells at 270-683-6525 or james.wells@pastoral.org.
- We are in need of more Ministers of Care to visit and take Communion to homebound parishioners. The time commitment is approximately 2-3 hours on Friday mornings; training is provided.
- Sacristans are needed for all weekend Masses. Sacristans ensure that preparations are in place for Mass including preparing the vessels and altar, ensuring liturgical ministers are in place, and ensuring that the sacristy is in order after Mass. Training is provided.

Praying. Giving. Serving.

On Saturday November 23 the Church celebrates the feast day of Blessed Miguel Pro. He was a young priest who lived in Mexico during a great persecution of Catholics. Priest had to go into hiding. Miguel would wear different disguises in order to still visit Catholics. He would dress as a beggar so he could enter people's houses to baptize babies or bless marriages. He would dress as a police officer so he could bring communion to Catholics that were in jail. He was falsely accused for a crime he did not commit and was sentenced to death. He died by firing squad, his last words were "Viva Cristo Rey," "Long live Christ the King!" He died with his arms stretched out in the shape of a cross with a rosary in one hand and a crucifix in the other. He is a great testament to our faith.

Bl. Miguel's nickname as a kid was Cocol which is a type of sweet bread. Here is a recipe for the bread, make it with your children and discuss Bl. Miguel's story. His story sounds like a plot for an action movie. It shows how life with Christ is a crazy adventure!

Cocol Recipe

4 c. flour	1 pkg. active dry yeast
1 c. anise tea	1/4 c. plus 1 tsp. sugar
1/4 c. butter, margarine, or shortening
1 tsp salt	2 eggs
	poppy seeds (optional)

Prepare the anise tea by boiling 1 c. water and 3 tsp. anise seeds. Boil for a few minutes and strain out the seeds. (You can leave the seeds in if you like.) Add the sugar, butter and salt to the tea. In a large bowl, combine 2 cups of the flour and the yeast. When tea mixture is lukewarm, add to the flour/yeast. Add eggs. Beat well. Stir in remaining flour and knead to make a stiff dough. Turn out on a lightly floured surface and knead until smooth, about ten minutes. Shape dough into a ball. Place in greased bowl, turning once to grease the surface of dough. Cover and let rise for one hour. Punch down. Divide dough into 10 or 15 pieces and shape each into a small ball. On lightly floured surface, roll or pat each piece into a circle about three inches in diameter. Place 2 inches apart on a greased baking sheet. If you wish, brush the tops with a small amount of butter and sprinkle poppy seed on top of each cocol. Cover and let rise for 30 minutes. Bake at 375 degrees for 18 minutes.

Viva Cristo Rey!

Only you can divide your property as you want it divided. A bequest to your Church can be a living memorial to the nobility of your life. It is also exempt from estate and inheritance taxes and reduces the amount of the estate to be taxed. Have an attorney provide the advice you might need to prepare such a request.
