The truth is the only way we will get new people to our Church is by inviting them—we need to evangelize. As Catholics, we are not known for our evangelization skills. Evangelism is still a scary word for many Catholics. We tend to be quiet about our faith, careful not to offend or make others feel awkward. Can't we just live by example and let that serve as our evangelization? The answer is NO. Often words are necessary.

We are blessed and excited to have 12 people inquiring about our Catholic Faith. All 12 people are here because someone invited them. We also have about 15 parishioners interested in walking that RCIA Journey of Faith with one of our candidates or catechumens. They are all interested because someone invited them to travel that journey. Our 2019-20 RCIA Journey of Faith begins July 31.

Pray and ask the Holy Spirit to guide you in sharing your faith with someone; you might be surprised to learn just how easy it can be to extend that invitation to learn more about our Catholic way of life.

II. Does Prayer change God or Does prayer change Me? For Jesus, more than an action, prayer is a way of being, a way of living out a relationship with His father. Because of this, Jesus can pray in all situations—in thanksgiving, blessing, or even deep grief as He prays in Gethsemane. He prays for the cup to pass Him by. Jesus tells us, “Ask and you will receive,” and yet it seems as though this Gethsemane prayer wasn’t answered. Jesus did undergo “the final test” even as He taught His disciples to pray for God to deliver them from it.

We have all known the experiences of feeling as though our prayers have gone unanswered. In the movie Shadowlands, about Christian author C. S. Lewis, there is a line spoken by Lewis’s character: “I pray because the need flows out of me all the time—waking and sleeping. . . . It doesn’t change God—it changes me.” Seen this way, prayer is a tool of our own transformation. God didn’t stop the crucifixion, and yet, through His complete love of God and gift of Himself, Jesus could not remain dead. He rose! In prayer we enter into the Paschal Mystery. May it lead us to new life, too!

III. Registration for Faith Formation is now open! There are registration packets located at all the doors of the church. Faith Formation will begin on Sunday, August 11 from 10:15-11:30am. To cover all learning materials, there is a $50 fee per child (this is negotiable where needed) which can be paid by check made payable to Saint Stephen Cathedral or, if more convenient, through our online WeShare program. There will be an opportunity to register after the 9:00am Mass on Sunday, August 4th in the Community Center. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact Hannah Bland, Director of Children’s Ministry, 270/683-6525 or hannah.bland@pastoral.org

IV. What Do You Read? While recovering from a severe wound he received in battle, Ignatius of Loyola (1491-1556) read a “Life of Christ” and the “Lives of the Saints” only because in the hospital they were the only books—certainly not his preference! His reading changed his life! As a soldier he decided to lay his military equipment before a statue of Mary at the Benedictine Abby of Montserrat and spent several months in a cave near Manresa. After making a pilgrimage to the Holy Land, he enrolled at the University of Paris, where he gathered six companions who would become the first Jesuits. Ignatius was the founder and first Father General of the Society of Jesus (Jesuits), and the author of the Spiritual Exercises, which has assisted thousands of people along their spiritual journey. His Feast Day is Wednesday, July 31st.

V. Away To Rest and Recharge: I will be away on vacation July 31 to August 8. If you need to speak with a priest, please contact Father Sinoj. To meet other needs, any member of our capable pastoral team will be eager to be of assistance. As your pastor, I rely upon your prayers.

In Joy and Hope, Fr. Jerry

Thousands of couples headed for divorce have successfully saved their marriages by attending. Retrouvaille is not a spiritual retreat, not a sensitivity group, not a seminar, or a social gathering. For confidential information about us or to register for the August program which begins with a weekend on Aug 16, 2019 call 270-683-1545 or visit the web site at www.retrouvaille.org.

ASKING FOR HELP

The Beatitudes praise the poor in spirit. One characteristic of those who are poor in spirit is their ability to ask for help; they know when others can provide what they lack. Today's readings encourage us to practice poverty in spirit by asking God for what we need. What could be more natural than to ask God for good things? God is, after all, the inventor of goodness and the giver of all good things.

Asking God for help puts us in conversation with God. These conversations take many forms. The reading from Genesis shows Abraham bantering with God like a skilled negotiator, while Saint Paul's letter to the Colossians praises God for answering us even when we don't deserve it. In Saint Luke's Gospel, Jesus not only gives us words to use in our conversations with God (the Our Father), but also promises that God always listens to our prayers.

Faith Formation Registration!

 As the 2019-20 school year begins, so will our Saint Stephen Cathedral Faith Formation Classes.

You may register and pay on-line on our website or pick up a packet from the tables near the church entrances. Faith Formation is open to all those registered families who have children attending public schools. Classes for grades 1-8 will begin Sunday, August 11, at 9:00am. Contact Hannah Bland with any questions or concerns. 270/683-6525 or hannah.bland@pastoral.org

TEACH US TO PRAY

Discipleship

Prayer is the foundation from which all other forms of stewardship flow. Without prayer, embracing life as a disciple isn't possible. During prayer we can offer God our joys, fears, challenges, and even anger; we can express our gratitude and bring our petitions to Him. At other times, we can rest quietly in God's presence. Making time for daily prayer enriches our relationship with God, helps us define our priorities in life's hectic pace, and provides comfort and guidance to navigate worries and disappointments. In today's Gospel, Jesus is describing God's immeasurable generosity when He says, "For everyone who asks, receives; and the one who seeks, finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened."

Featured Ministry Opportunities

Prayer can help us discern how to best share our talents and gifts. How is God calling you to share yours?

- Our Ministers of Care volunteers visit, take Communion, and offer a few moments of kindness and compassion to those who are unable to attend Mass. Homebound visits are usually made on Friday mornings. Eucharistic Minister experience is not required; training is provided. Contact Father Sinoj at the Parish Office or sinoj.pynadath@pastoral.org. Opportunities are also available for Ministers of Care who wish to take Communion to nursing homes.
- Ministers of Praise offer prayers for our parish and a variety of intentions. This ministry is perfect for those who can no longer be as involved as they would like due to challenges of aging or declining health. Contact Margaret at 270-683-7627 or georgefrey@att.net.
- Liturgical Ministers play a vital role in helping to provide a reverent, meaningful worship experience at all our Masses. More Sacristans, Eucharistic Ministers, Lectors, Altar Servers, and Hospitality Ministers are always needed and welcome. Training is provided. Contact Donna at donna.tarantino@pastoral.org or 270-683-6525.

Praying. Giving. Serving.

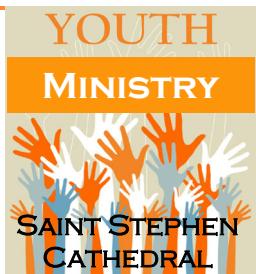

Dinner & Entertainment: Tuesday, July 30, Tony Wolf (musician and comedian) will be at Blessed Sacrament for a "Night of Hope and Laughter." Youth grades 5-12 are invited to meet for a cookout at 5:00 PM at the Youth House before heading over to Blessed Sacrament for the entertainment portion of the evening. We are in need of a couple of adult volunteers to help with transportation and being with us that night! If you are willing to participate with us, please let Crissy know! Parents, please pick up your child at the Youth House at 7:45!

Youth Swim Party: Mark your calendars for Wednesday, July 31 for a swim party at Atlantis Swim Club from 12:00-5:00 PM. This is for all those in grades 5-12. Parents, feel free to drop your child off at any time during this time frame, just pick them up by 5:00! Please bring $10; that will cover swimming and pizza. If you want anything extra from the concession stand, you are responsible for that. We will have bottled water available for our group as well. We have a pavilion reserved near the basketball court between the pools. If any parent is able to stay with us, we do need a couple of other adults on site as well. If any family wants to take advantage of the group rate with us, please contact Crissy!

St. Stephen Cathedral Paint Party Youth Fundraiser: Monday, August 26 at 6:00 PM in the Community Center. Choose one of the wood cutouts to paint at our party! We will order your selection and have it ready for you! Ticket stubs to participate (found at the doors of the church or in the office) with your name, money, and cutout # are DUE SUNDAY, AUGUST 11 to the office. Money funds trip to the National Catholic Youth Conference in November.

NCYC - The National Catholic Youth Conference will take place in Indianapolis from November 21-23. The theme for this year is: "Blessed, Broken, Given". We are blessed to have 7 youth and 5 adults from Saint Stephen Cathedral who have answered that call to come together for three days of prayer, song, service, and community as they learn ways to deepen and implement the message of the Gospel into their Faith lives.

The cost for NCYC is $490 per person (lunch and dinner not included). While this is an expensive pilgrimage, we know that it is an investment in the future of being disciples and spreading Christ's message to all corners of the Earth. Many of our Youth would not be able to afford this journey without the assistance of fundraising and gifts of our parishioners. We have a total goal of $3,410 to raise to cover the remaining cost of this trip. Donations can be dropped off at the office or through WeShare on our parish website. All donations are greatly appreciated! May God reward you for your generosity and investment in the faith and lives of these young men and women of our Cathedral parish family! Your donations will help the Youth of St. Stephen Cathedral to make this pilgrimage of faith!

Only you can divide your property as you want it divided. A bequest to your Church can be a living memorial to the nobility of your life. It is also exempt from estate and inheritance taxes and reduces the amount of the estate to be taxed. Have an attorney provide the advice you might need to prepare such a request.
