"And one of the lepers, realizing he had been healed, returned glorifying God in a loud voice, and he fell at the feet of Jesus and thanked Him" (Luke 17:11-19). If we, like that leper, realize as we travel through life, that God has spontaneously reached out with healing and forgiveness, and has raised us to the dignity of children in God's household—and indeed that has already happened—what other prayer need we say but, "Thank You?" Can we name a moment when we felt like an outsider and experienced Jesus' healing words? Is that something about which we need to give thanks? In turn, who are the outsiders whom we must welcome into our lives and our community?

I. Annual Disciples Response Fund (DRF): If you are registered at a parish in our Diocese, you have probably received a letter from Bishop Medley asking for support of the Disciples Response Fund annual appeal. The good works funded by the DRF appeal deserve our support, including youth & young adult ministries, parish grants, charitable works, faith enrichment, and clergy and seminarian formation. This year our target goal is $26,000, which is the same target as last year. Once our parish exceeds the target goal in DRF contributions, 50% of that surplus will be returned to our parish to be used as we choose. Our parish received a rebate of just over $9,400 from your generosity of last year's DRF. We have made excellent use of the rebate, including a donation for computer and technology improvements to our parish Saint Vincent de Paul conference to help them better serve those in need, as well as a donation to VOCARE to support vocations, priesthood, and religious life. The theme for the appeal this year is "A Community of Faith." I continue to be humbled by the prayers, generosity, and service of the Saint Stephen Cathedral faith community! Thank you for your prayerful consideration, and I ask you to be as generous as you can. Your donation makes a difference.

III. Baptized and Sent: The Church of Christ on Mission in the World: we will celebrate World Mission Sunday on October 20, 2019. Pope Francis invites the entire Church to support mission dioceses in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe, where priests, religious and lay leaders serve the world's most vulnerable communities. Please keep these missions in your prayers and be generous in next week's collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. We are missionaries in a universal missionary church!

IV. Fed to the Lions: Saint Ignatius of Antioch (c. 37-107), an apostolic father and possible disciple of John the Evangelist, served the community of Antioch as bishop. Living during the anti-Christian reign of Roman emperor Trajan, he was sentenced to be fed to the animals in the Roman Colosseum because he would not engage in the worship of idols. His journey to Rome was marked by extensive writing in which he composed seven letters, as he was bound in chains and "carted" through seven towns, to create fear in "followers of the Way." These letters, directed to various churches, emphasized the humanity and divinity of Christ, the centrality of Eucharist, and the importance of Church unity. We celebrate his feast on Thursday, October 17. I invite you to our 7:00am or 12:05 (noon) Mass.

V. My Favorite Writer of Good News! Saint Luke the Evangelist (first century) is traditionally known as the author of the Gospel that bears his name as well as the Acts of the Apostles. Luke was a gentile from Antioch in Syria, and his roots show both in his writing style and in his sympathetic treatment of gentiles in the gospel that bears his name. Luke accompanied Paul on some of his evangelizing journeys, and he stayed with Paul while he is in prison in Rome. Some sources claim he was martyred, but it is thought that he died an old man of natural causes. A tradition states that he was the first icon painter, and the black Madonna of Częstochowa is attributed to him. His symbol is an ox or bull because the Lukan Gospel begins with Zachariah, the father of John the Baptist, offering a sacrifice in the temple. Luke, patron of Artists and Physicians, is my favorite Scripture writer! Why not give thanks by celebrating Mass (7:00am or 12:05, noon) on his feast day, Friday, October 18.

Sacrament NEWS

Sacrament of Confirmation

There will be a Parent/Confirmandi meeting on Wednesday October 16 in the Community Center at 6 PM (there was a misprint in the letters that went out on the date and time) Here at Saint Stephen, we Confirmation is traditionally received in the 8th Grade. As a reminder, Confirmation Preparation is a 2 year process – students need to be enrolled in either Faith Formation either through the parish or the school the year prior to receiving the Sacrament. If you have any questions regarding Sacramental Preparation, please contact Crissy Stevenson

Sacrament of Baptism Preparation

Baptism Preparations sessions are offered once a month to prepare parents for this memorable and sacred Sacrament. Completion of the two-hour session is required before the Baptism is scheduled, even if this is not your first child. First-time parents are encouraged to attend Baptism Prep before your child's arrival; your example of faith begins the moment the child is born. The next Baptism Preparation session is on Monday, October 21 at 6:00 PM in the Youth House. Please contact Crissy at the Parish Office to reserve your spot for the October session.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

We are Baptized and Sent! Next week is World Mission Sunday, October 20, in a special Extraordinary Missionary Month. We are called through our baptism to be part of the Church's missionary efforts, through prayer, self-sacrifice and support of missionary vocations through material aid. Remembering that we are baptized and sent as a Universal Church of Christ on mission in the world, we can. . . PRAY for the Church's worldwide missionary work OFFER financial HELP and CHARITY through The Society for the Propagation of the Faith for vulnerable communities throughout Asia, Africa, Latin America and the Pacific Islands.

Rosary Coast to Coast

Come join us THIS Sunday, October 13th, at 3:00pm in joining our voices to God, for the protection of America, and our Holy Mother Church. Please join your voices with thousands of other Americans, and the many other nations as well, as we pray for the protection of America, and our church. This year you can attend one of these three local churches to pray the rosary together, the Carmel Home Chapel, St. Anthony's in Utica (Brown's Valley), or at Immaculate Church in Owensboro.

~ Donna Tarantino, Director of Ministries & Volunteers

Cooler weather has arrived, and we are feeling the transformation to autumn. It's a season that traditionally focuses on giving thanks; the secular reminders are beginning all around us in stores, on television, and on social media. But as disciples—as Christian stewards—we are called to give thanks all year through. We are called to give back to God, with grateful hearts, a generous portion of the many blessings we receive.

In early November, as is our tradition at Saint Stephen Cathedral, we will be asked to pray to discern our offerings of time, talent, and treasure to our parish for the coming year. Why does our parish ask for an annual renewal? Renewals give us the opportunity to examine our blessings and make prayerful decisions about our commitments of financial support and volunteer service in parish ministry for the coming year.

Praying. Consider the role of prayer in your life. Do I give thanks each day for my blessings? Am I willing to make prayer a daily priority? Am I too busy to pray?

Giving. A decision about our annual (Sunday) giving to our parish should be made prayerfully and according to our means. Financial offerings should be sacrificial (does it pinch a little?), proportionate (does it adequately reflect a measure of our financial blessings?), planned (does it involve making advance decisions?), free (is our gift unconditional?), and a prayer (is it an expression of gratitude to God?).

Serving. Using our talents and skills wisely glorifies God, the Giver of all gifts. Though different from those of others, we are all given gifts and talents to share. To discern how to best offer your talents in parish ministry, you might consider: What do I do well? What do I enjoy? What do friends and family tell me that I do well? How can I best offer my time and God-given talents? Our Ministry Directory provides descriptions of all our parish ministries. There's something for just about everyone!

Featured Ministry Opportunities

- Liturgical volunteers are essential to all of our Masses. We are in need of more Sacristans, Eucharistic Ministers, Lectors, Altar Servers, and Hospitality Ministers. Pray about serving in a liturgical ministry! Training and ongoing formation are provided.

World Mission Sunday Collection on October 20th

Social Concerns Outreach—can you help?

Each year at this time, we collect items for the shelters and for our own food pantry. Please mark your calendars and bring the item listed each week and leave it in church in the baskets at the foot of the altar. Thank you for helping those less fortunate:

October 27, 2019: Backpack Ministry: Ravioli (canned pasta) and individual Mac-n-cheese.

November 3, 2019: Cathedral Soup Kitchen (Pitino Shelter): canned corn, canned green beans, and sugar

November 10, 2019: Crossroads Emergency Shelter for Women: travel size deodorant and shampoo, coffee, toilet paper

November 17, 2019: Help Office: pasta, canned fruit, canned meats (tuna and chicken)

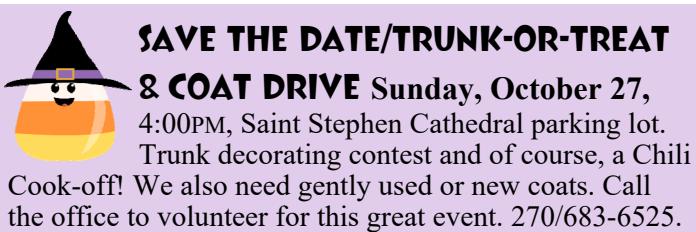

Today's Gospel shows us a great example of gratitude. The grateful leper who comes back to show his appreciation to Jesus is a model for how we should live our lives. Showing gratitude is not just for Thanksgiving. We should acknowledge and thank the Lord for the things we are grateful for every day. How do you show your appreciation to God in your daily life? Start a gratitude journal with your kids. Dedicate a notebook for each child and for yourself to write four things you are grateful for every day. This is a great way for your kids to start seeing God work in their lives, and to always have a spirit of thanksgiving for all the Lord has done for them. Happy Sunday!

Only you can divide your property as you want it divided. A bequest to your Church can be a living memorial to the nobility of your life. It is also exempt from estate and inheritance taxes and reduces the amount of the estate to be taxed. Have an attorney provide the advice you might need to prepare such a request.
