II. All Souls Day (Commemoration of all the Faithful Departed): praying for the dead reaches deep into our human history, and has been our custom from the earliest days of the Church. Every time we profess the Nicene Creed: "I look forward to the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come," we acknowledge the destination we are all journeying to, Heaven, and our desire to join this eternal community of faith. A wonderful way to remember our deceased loved ones is at Mass, in which there is built into our liturgy, a commemoration of the dead. So, regardless of the particular Mass intention, we have an opportunity to remember our deceased loved ones at every Mass. All Souls' Day Mass schedule on Saturday, November 2nd, at Saint Stephen Cathedral will be at 9:00am.

In Joy and Hope, Fr. Jerry

I. Solemnity of All Saints: for me or you to be a saint, we must show others the face of God. Sister Carla Mae Streeter, O.P. proposes we translate the Beatitudes (Matthew 5:1-12) as "beautiful" in addition to "blessed" or "happy." She contends, "What moves us is the beauty of someone's life" (Foundations of Spirituality, 2012). This is particularly true when we look at the stories of the saints. Each contains beauty that calls to us, that attracts us. Within this beauty, we see the face of God revealed in new ways. Each saint's life could be considered one facet of an infinite diamond. As we celebrate the saints, we remember that this is what we are called to as well: to lead lives of beauty, blessedness, sanctity, and justice, and to show the face of God to all those we meet. Our Mass schedule on this holy day of obligation (opportunity), Friday, November 1, All Saints Day is: 7:00am and 12:00noon at the Cathedral, and 6:00pm at Blessed Sacrament Chapel (7th & Sycamore Streets).

III. Linking Life Issues: if one contends, as we Catholics do, that the right of every fetus to be born should be protected by civil law and supported by civil consensus, then our moral, political and economic responsibilities do not stop at the moment of birth. Those who defend the right to life of the weakest among us must be equally visible in support of the quality-of-life of the powerless among us: the old and the young, the hungry and the homeless, the undocumented immigrant and desperate refugee, as well as the unemployed and underemployed worker.

Such a quality of life posture translates into specific political and economic positions on tax policy, employment generation, welfare policy, nutrition and feeding programs, and healthcare. As this Respect Life month, with our theme "Christ our Hope, in Every Season of Life," comes to a close, let us reflect on what happens to a child, born into less than ideal circumstances, who reaches "day one" of life? Resources can be found at respectlifeprogram.org/october.

IV. Remembering Our Deceased Loved Ones: Solemn Vespers for the Dead (vespers or "evening prayer", the official prayer of the Church). This remembrance will be held Monday, November 4th, at 6:00p.m., followed by a reception in our Community Center. Everyone is invited, especially those who have lost loved ones this past year. A special candlelight service will be part of our evening prayer for ALL our deceased loved ones, especially those buried from the Cathedral.

V. Be A Link in the "Life Chain" on Sunday, October 27th, 2:30-3:30pm. Sponsored by Owensboro Respect for Life, this "Life Chain" will run along Frederica Street from Brescia University to Towne Square Mall. Signs will be available at 2:00pm at Our Lady of Lourdes. Be a peaceful, prayerful witness!

Pour out your Holy Spirit upon our parishes, schools, and families and assist us in building a culture of vocations in which many will hear your call to serve you people.

Help us to remain faithful to the call of the Gospel as we support and encourage vocations of sacrificial love in our youth.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

DISCIPLESHIP:

Sharing our Time, Talent, and Treasure

A Message from Father Jerry:

Take a few moments to appreciate some of the wonderful aspects of our parish: the warm hospitality offered to both visitors and members, reverent liturgies enhanced by sacred music, our tradition of outreach to the community, our many active ministries, and much more! In addition, our beautiful, historic Cathedral is blessed to serve as the Mother Church of our diocese. Saint Stephen Cathedral is an active, growing faith community because of your generous offerings of prayer, volunteer service, and financial support.

Each November, we are asked to consider our blessings and submit a pledge or Time, Talent, and Treasure. Packets will be mailed soon to registered parishioners; when you receive it, I ask that you please complete and return a pledge. Praying: Consider the blessings God has given you; let us pray to receive His gifts gratefully and share them responsibly. And remember to make time for God in daily prayer! Giving: Pray to discern an appropriate, proportionate level of annual financial support to our parish; then complete the treasure portion of the pledge form. Serving: Take some time to review the ministry directory, which provides information about the dozens of opportunities to volunteer in parish ministry. Prayerfully discern how you and your family members can offer your time and talents; then complete the ministry portion of the pledge. I am asking everyone to return a pledge by Thanksgiving Day (November 28). You may place it in the Offertory collection at any Mass, send it by mail, drop it by the Parish Office, or submit a pledge online; visit our website at www.ststephencathedral.org.

Whether you are new to the pledging process, continuing your current involvement, or changing your selections, please return a pledge. Our parish needs the participation and support of all our members—our parish needs you!

Featured Ministry Opportunity

Good music is integral to our liturgies. Our cantors and choir members lend their time and talents to help lead our parish community in sung prayer, not only at weekend Masses but holy days and special celebrations throughout the year. More choir members and cantors are always needed and welcome! If you are interested in being a part of our Music Ministry, or for more information, please contact James Wells at 270-683-6525 or james.wells@pastoral.org.

Praying. Giving. Serving.

HEARTFELT JUDGMENT

When you meet someone, you judge them by their clothes; when you leave them, you judge them by their heart.

—Russian proverb

TRUNK-OR-TREAT COAT DRIVE

In an effort to involve families with children in service and outreach, we are having a coat drive for our annual Trunk-or-Treat event. We encourage all people, especially those with children, to look through the closets for gently used coats.

Families are encouraged to take this time to pray for those who will receive the coats and ask God's blessings upon them for the winter. A good Scripture passage might be Matthew 25:31-46: "for I was . . . naked and you clothed me." Please bring any and all gently used clean coats to Mass this weekend and on October 26/27. There will be boxes available at the doors of church or you can drop coats off at our parish office during business hours (Monday-Friday 8:30am-4:30pm). All coats will be set up and given away at our Trunk or Treat event to anyone in the community who needs a coat!

We hope to see at Trunk or Treat, October 27 for this fun-filled family event! Be in the lookout for more family service events!

How to Celebrate all Souls Day With Your Children

November is the month of remembrance. We start off the month with All Saints Day, this is when we celebrate the lives of the holy men and women that have gone before us and are now in Heaven. There are ways to celebrate this feast day with your children. You can celebrate this holy feast by:

- Praying a litany of the Saints with your kids.
- Make sure to take your children to mass, it is a Holy Day of Obligation.
- As a family read stories of the lives of the Saints. Who are your favorite Saints? Who are your children's favorite Saints? Talk about them.

The next day on November 2 we celebrate all the souls of the people who have died. There are beautiful ways to celebrate this feast with your children.

- Pray for the members of your family that have died.
- Pray a rosary with the intention of the Poor Souls in Purgatory.
- Take your children to a cemetery and pray for those who are buried there.
- Catholic Cemeteries in the area are: Mater Dolorosa Cemetery and Resurrection Cemetery.

While celebrating these feasts talk to your children about the importance of living our lives in a saintly way. We are all called to holiness and to become Saints just like their favorite Saints!

Discuss the importance of praying for the dead. We believe that after someone has died that it is important to pray for their souls, that they may go to Heaven. We pray for the Poor Souls in Purgatory because once they enter Heaven after their temporary purification they will pray for us.

Litany of Thanks

To those who served and provided food for the family and friends of "Boots" Norris who was buried from our parish: Sue Gough, Gene Lyon, Theresa Ray, Bob Stone, Mary Alice Wethington, Sharlene Hatfield, Barbara Jones, Pam Collignon, Pat Baker and Joan Froehlich who served; food prepared by Sharlene Hatfield, Bob Stone, Sue Gough, Pat Baker, Barbara Jones, Rose Ann Payne, Rhonda Troutman, Sarah McCarter, Charlotte Hagan, Theresa Ray, Mary Beth Hurley, Susan Bartlett, Katie Pagan Mary Helen Nash, Rita Roberson, Dora Thompson, Becky Steward, Mary Wade, Margaret Frey, Mary Alice Wethington, Kathleen Johnson, Gene Lyon, Michelle Lyon, Mary Bryan Booth (and more...)
